The framework offers a fast and flexible route to market; you can directly award to a preferred supplier, or we can run a mini competition from our supply chain. We have no limit on the suppliers, nationally or regionally, and we can onboard new suppliers so long as they meet our quality standards.

Everything FM is designed for speed and value, here are just some of the reason why you should use the framework:

We will direct award or run a mini competition to secure the the right supplier for your requirements, benchmarking to achieve best value and quality

We are your partner, monitoring costs and performance for the life of the contract to help ensure the service meets the standards we all expect

We work with all our suppliers to suggest ways in which they can deliver greater social value activity as a standard part of their contract delivery

Our supply chain is flexible: we can onboard suppliers through our rapid quality assessment process either nationally, regionally or locally

Unrestricted call off conditions: you have the flexibility to choose the supplier you need

We require our supply chain to always provide their best price, which cannot be bettered through traditional frameworks or in the open market

We look forward to discussing your FM requirements; to get started, call us on 0845 257 7175, email contact@everythingfm.org or visit everythingfm.org
